Act II celebrates the Roaring Twenties.

SIGNATURE COCKTAIL

LADY NOIR 17,90

Hansa Café Cocktail Competition Winner Autumn 2026.

What if the classic White lady was invented in 1930's Helsinki? Meet the shadow of the white lady. This elegant sour brings velvety warmth to a timeless favorite, layering rich Nordic botanicals with bright citrus.

Created by our own bartender Hannes Alho.

Liquorice root, Vanilla, Lemon, Napue Gin, Cointreau, Absinthe, Vegetable Carbon

ACT I:
THE TURN OF THE CENTURY

SINGAPORE SLING (1915, Singapore) 17,90

FRUITY, COMPLEX & TROPICAL

Created around 1915 by bartender Ngiam Tong Boon at the legendary Long Bar in Raffles Hotel, Singapore. Designed to resemble fruit punch so women could discreetly enjoy spirits in public. It became one of the defining grand hotel highball classics of the 1910s–1930s worldwide.

Sipsmith Gin, Merlet Cherry Brandy, Cointreau, DOM Bénédictine, Lime, Pineapple, Grenadine, Angostura bitters

THE LAST WORD (1915, Detroit) 17,90

HERBACEOUS, SOUR & BALANCED

Originally created at the Detroit Athletic Club, this popular Prohibition-era cocktail was famously rediscovered during the new millennium. It presents a sharp and pungent flavor profile that is beautifully balanced with a touch of sweetness.

Monkey 47 Gin, Green Chartreuse, Maraschino, Lime

AVIATION (1916, New York) 17,90

FLORAL, TART & SOUR

First published in 1916 by Hugo R. Ensslin in New York, this cocktail evokes the blue haze of a beautiful spring day. It offers a soft, floral nectar that combines gin, maraschino cherry, crème de violette, and lemon.

Sipsmith Gin, Maraschino Liqueur, Crème de Violette, Lemon

TUXEDO NO. 2 (1916, New York) 17,90

DRY, FLORAL & DELICATE

Emerging from the elite Tuxedo Club New York, this elegant precursor to the modern Martini elevates crisp gin and dry vermouth. Finished with a subtle touch of maraschino and a whisper of absinthe. It is silky, botanical and deeply complex.

Sipsmith Gin, Cucielo Dry Vermouth, Maraschino Liqueur, Absinthe, Orange Bitters

CHRYSANTHEMUM (1916, New York) 17,90

HERBAL, HONEYED & LOW-ABV

First codified in 1916 and popularized aboard Prohibition-era luxury liners, this drink turns traditional cocktail architecture on its head. It offers low-proof elegance by using crisp dry vermouth as a base, softened by the rich complexity of Bénédictine.

Cucielo Dry Vermouth, DOM Bénédictine, Absinthe

ACT II:
THE ROARING TWENTIES

LUCIEN GAUDIN (1920s, Paris)
CRISP, DRY & ELEGANT

17,90

Crafted in 1920s Paris to honor a legendary Olympic fencing champion, this sleek riff on the Negroni swaps sweet for dry vermouth. Enhanced by Cointreau, it delivers a beautiful bittersweet serve with a remarkably clean botanical finish.

Sipsmith Gin, Campari, Cointreau, Cucielo Dry Vermouth

SIDECAR (1922, Paris/London)
RICH, SOUR & STRONG

17,90

Named after a motorcycle attachment, this classic was first mentioned in Harry MacElhone's 1922 mixing guide. It delivers a bold, sour profile through a manly combination of cognac, Cointreau, and fresh lemon.

Hine VSOP Cognac, Cointreau, Lemon

BLOOD AND SAND (1922, London)
FRUITY, EARTHY & SUBTLY SMOKY

17,90

Named after the famous 1922 Rudolph Valentino bullfighter movie of the same name.This whisky-based classic provides an intriguing combination of flavors that leans gracefully toward the sweeter side of the palate.

Macallan 12yo Double Cask, Merlet Cherry Brandy, Cucielo Rosso Vermouth, Orange

BOULEVARDIER (1927, Paris) 17,90

BITTER, STRONG & WARMING

Born in 1920s Jazz Age Paris for an American expatriate writer, this drink is a richer, spirit-forward cousin to the Negroni. It effortlessly combines American rye whiskey with the velvety dark vermouth and crisp botanical bitterness of Campari.

Michter's Rye Whisky, Campari, Cucielo Rosso Vermouth

HOTEL NACIONAL SPECIAL (1930, Havana) 17,90

FROTHY, FRUITY & TROPICAL

Concocted in 1930s Havana at the famed Hotel Nacional de Cuba, this tropical classic offers a sophisticated twist on the Daiquiri. It perfectly harmonizes the sugar-cane warmth of aged rum with pineapple's sweetness and lime's vibrant acidity.

Havana Club 3yo Rum, Merlet Apricot Brandy, Pineapple, Lime
